THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

WRIT PETITION No.19874 of 1997

ORDER:

Sri J.Jayanand, learned counsel for the petitioner, would fairly submit that subsequent to the filing of the present writ petition, the petitioner had invoked the jurisdiction of the Andhra Pradesh Administrative Tribunal (for short 'the Tribunal') for the self-same relief and that the O.A. was also disposed of by the Tribunal.

Since the jurisdiction of the Tribunal had already been invoked, if the petitioners are aggrieved by the order of the Tribunal, it is the order of the Tribunal, which is required to be challenged. The cause in the writ petition does not survive adjudication. The writ petition has become infructuous and is accordingly dismissed as infructuous. No order as to costs.
